

TeamViewer Disclaimer

Security

- The randomly created ID ensures that you will be connected to an appropriate support staff member.
- Every TeamViewer session is encoded with a 1024bit RSA Private/public Key Exchange and 256 Bit AES system.
- You can end the session at any given time.
- Please find detailed information about the security of TeamViewer here.

TEAMVIEWER LIABILITY DISCLAIMER

Mississippi Delta Community College does not accept any liability for lost data or any installed programs on your computer, including any computer protection (firewall or virus scanner). Data security is the sole responsibility of the customer. Liability is restricted to intent and gross negligence.

Mississippi Delta Community College accepts no liability for faults for which it is not responsible, even if they occur around the time when the support is provided.

By clicking on the button "Online Support" you hereby confirm your acceptance of the Terms and Conditions of the online support and start the TeamViewer software.

Please note that the service is only available during our business hours and subject to prior arrangement by telephone with our support staff.

- The technician cannot access your computer without your express consent.
- The technician cannot collaborate with you without your express consent.
- No third-party programs will be installed on your computer.
- It is not possible for data to be removed from your computer unnoticed and without authorization
- You can end the shared session at any time.
- As far as the above rules are not exhaustive, the Terms and Conditions of Mississippi Delta Community College are in place.