

Mississippi Delta Community College Leadership Mississippi

Dr. Larry Bailey, President of Mississippi Delta Community College, is pictured participating in a panel discussion held in Cleveland, MS, on August 21, 2009, concerning education in the Mississippi Delta. The panel of educators also included Dr. Jackie Thigpen, Superintendent of the Cleveland School District; Dr. Joseph Stevenson, Provost of Mississippi Valley State University; and Dr. John Hilpert, President of Delta State University. The panel discussion was part of the 2009-2010 Leadership Mississippi class sessions held this year. The class also toured the Delta and attended a reception at the B.B. King Museum in Indianola. Leadership Mississippi is a program of MEC's M.B. Swayze Foundation.
